SEQUEL TO THE WAR

Will Prepare for Clean-up of City Next Spring.

EDUCATION OF THE CITIZEN

Proposed to Send Instructions to Householders.

EARLY CONFERENCE WISHED

Leading Swatters Making Every Effort to Win the Campaign
Grand Prizes.

The Star's all-summer fly war, which is to end in September, will be followed by commencement of preparations by the clean city committee to make conditions extremely unfavorable for the appearance of the insect next spring.

The committee is the permanent organization which grew out of the clean city crusade conducted by The Star last April. In accordance with its constitution the first fall meeting will be held on the second Tuesday in September.

John G. McGrath, chairman of the subcommittee on membership, today requested Dr. Arthur L. Murray, secretary of the general body, to call a meeting of the subcommittee some time this month. It is Mr. McGrath's plan to provide for as general representation on the committee as possible.

Work to Be Done This Fall.

Although it is improbable that the committee will decide on a clean-up campaign for the fall, it is practically certain that subcommittees will be appointed to consider the District's contract system for the disposal of garbage and the disposal of the refuse generally. Instructions for the guidance of citizens in keeping their premises clean and co-operating with the District authorities to the end of improving the sanitary conditions of the capital as a whole will be prepared and distributed among householders.

Next spring the committee may decide to conduct another clean-up campaign. It is believed that the work of the coming winter Washington will be cleaner than it usually is at that season, and that the early flies will find subsistence difficult.

Benefits of the Clean-Up.

Inspectors of the health department of the District are unanimous in the assertion that the educational benefits of the last clean-up crusade are still being felt. Not only were tons of dirt removed during the crusade, but householders generally have striven to prevent refuse from collecting. Washington is declared to be cleaner this summer than in years, and the conditions with the highest scores for the crusade, it is believed to be responsible for the fact that there have been exceptionally few cases of typhoid fever.

Exertions of the Swatters.

Deliveries of flies daily at the campaign headquarters in the Municipal building tend to prove the assertion of the contestants that the insects have become scarce. Many of the young crusaders are extending their operations to new territory.

Lawrence Fitzgerald has the best record of any of the contestants so far. Frank Punk is making a good showing and promises to win the district prize from the contest. In fact, it is likely that there will be a number of surprises in the winning of the five-dollar district prizes this month.

Winners of the general prizes in May, June and July are making every effort to be among the leaders this month, as the contestants with the highest scores for the entire campaign will be awarded grand prizes in September, ranging from $100 to $500.

It is the belief of Dr. Murray that the total slaughter this month will not exceed four or five millions. The insects were exterminated at an unprecedented rate last month and the cool weather of the past few days has delayed the development of new generations of the disease-spreaders. It is doubtful if there have ever been fewer flies in Washington in August than there are at the present time.

Cincinnati Fighting the Fly.

Cincinnati, famous for fire engines, large families and the amount of beer its citizens consume, has started a campaign against the flies, which, if successful, probably will bring the Ohio city into the spotlight as one of its other accomplishments. An attempt is being made to create such an antipathy against the pests in all of the homes of the city that the insects will rise in arms against them and use every effort to rid the community of the germ carriers.

The health authorities of the city have recommended traps, poison and "swatters" and are now endeavoring to put an end to the fly nuisance, but means, fair or foul, that results in decreasing the fly market is agreeable to all.

Practically all of the bulletins received by the District health office from health officers of cities all over the United States have articles warning the people of the dangers of flies as disease germ carriers. Although for years the fly has been recognized as a common enemy to health, it appears that only recently organized fights on them have been carried on.

ROCKEFELLER GETS ANGRY.

Brother of John D. Orders Name Removed From Memorial Bridge.

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., August 8.—William Rockefeller, who ordered that his name as donor must be taken off the tablet prepared for the new Washington Irving Memorial bridge, which he gave to the local authorities.

The new bridge is rapidly nearing completion, and a bronze tablet with suitable inscription was ordered a few days ago by the committee on arrangements. When Mr. Rockefeller learned that his name was on the tablet he became indignant and issued orders that his name be erased.

"BIG BOB" TRIES SUICIDE.

Four Attempts to Kill Self.

LOS ANGELES, August 8.—R. C. ("Big Bob") Snipes, confessed North Carolina "moonshiner" and murderer, held at the Central police station until southern officers came for him, is in a serious condition as a result of four attempts to commit suicide.

First he tried to cremate himself while in his bunk in a jail cell. When taken to the prison hospital he threw himself under an electric car and a few minutes later he was taken to the hospital with a handkerchief Snipes tried Monday to sever an artery in his wrist with a piece of tin.

Frank D. Ware of Richmond, Va., a cigarette salesman, filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy in the United States District Court today, giving his liabilities as $37,504.95 and his assets as $283. Among the notes is one held by the First National Bank of Baltimore for $12,000, and one held by the Farmers' National Bank of Baltimore for $8,000.
